Vail SC Parent Education

Vail SC Parent Education

How are players evaluated in trainings and games

Cause and effect of parent actions

Parent’s role in development

Vail SC Vocabulary

Vail Soccer Club Qualities

Vail Soccer Club Player Qualities

Technical	Game Understanding
Technically proficient in all areas	Applies knowledge and details of the cues
Proficient in 1v1 abilities	Reads and analyzes game in split second
Ability to create even under pressure	Recognizes transition moments as a threat
Maintains consistent high standard technically	Manages the game in the moment
Execute the technical demands of their position	Is the best player on the field based on position
Various abilities with surfaces and distribution	Maximizes position based on cues in game

Vail Soccer Club Player Qualities

Physical	Initiative
Uses body to win ball and protect it	Creates instead of reacts
Fitness to execute their tasks entire game	Looks to take on 1v1 confrontations
Exudes power and speed	Moves into space ahead of time
Must win challenges and use strength	Is proactive on and off field

Vail Soccer Club Player Qualities

Focus	Responsibility
Plays to win	Engaged throughout every game/session
Has guts and is brave	Delivers on agreements and promises
Deals with adversity	Is adaptable in dealing with changes
Emotional stability	Is there when needed
Enhances the team by executing their task	Creates a personal development plan. GOALS
Executes their task under all circumstances	Is a coach on the field, get others to follow

Vail Soccer Club Parent Qualities

Informed and educated	Provides ways for you to interact with child
Willing to ask questions	Further raises your game understanding
Keeps perspective	Long v. short term, how do we measure success
Motivates and assists their child’s development	Help at home, encourage, become a fan
Positive in your child’s learning	Celebrate their successes, not the failures
Deal with adversity helps growth	Can your response become a motivator
Kids feed off your energy	They need to feel supported and encouraged

Practical steps to take

Pick a favorite team together and support

Soccer opportunities: 3v3, camps, indoor,

Set SMART Goals

Seek opportunities to watch higher level games live

Soccer tools:SKLZ, bownets, DribbleUP, soccer pal

Spend time playing soccer at home

Consistent communication with the coaching staff

Increase knowledge and perspective

Vail SC Vocabulary

Stay Organized	Composure
Build out of the back	Settle, then look to play
Change the point of attack	Create space with your movement
Build thru the lines	Read the game and be aware
Be patient	What is the better option?
Team Shape : Depth, width and length	How can you be more dangerous?
Stay connected	Think about your shape

Vail SC Qualities

Club Philosophy - Player centered and positive

Soccer Philosophy - “Playing style”

Coaching Philosophy - Coaching standards

Methodology - How we coach.

Curriculum - What we coach.

VAIL SOCCER CLUB
VSC